

DELANO, 17, GEORGIA

Hair Love is a children's book encouraging readers to celebrate their natural hair, showing the many styles and forms it can take on. The book features a Black father and his daughter as they go on a hair journey to find the perfect style for her, demonstrating their love through hair. Banning this book will lead to many young children feeling that their natural hair is something that should not be cherished, a harmful notion that we should aim to dismiss.

NATIONAL COALITION AGAINST CENSORSHIP